Back to School Tips

As we are nearing the end of summer vacation, a new school year is quickly approaching. It can seem overwhelming during the transition but there are several tips that can be useful for parents and students alike.

After scouring the internet and the personal experiences of other parents , there seems to be a consensus on the most helpful ways to get back into the classrooms with ease.

Important reminders and a simple checklist follows;

Don't forget your Checkup

Sports physicals

Yearly checkups

Review medication schedule if this pertains to your child

A dentist appointment before school begins help both students and parents plan ahead to avoid missing school or work.

Getting back into the routine can be tricky. We have all been enjoying the summer and carefree days but it's time to begin the adjustment routine. Encourage an earlier bedtime and wake up schedule a few weeks before the onset on school. The new sleep schedule will make the transition back to class much easier for the child and you. Our days are still long, and the daylight still lingers into the later hours of the evening so check your clock to help stick to this new routine that will be advantageous.

The American Academy of Pediatrics Childhood Sleep Guidelines breaks down how much sleep is needed for children of different ages.

- 3-5 years of age should sleep 10-13 hours a day, including naps
- 6-12 years of age 9-12 hours
- Teenagers 13-18 years of age 8-10 hours

As for the younger students just starting school or perhaps making a change in schools, there are several ideas to help guide them through the often-emotional changes.

- Visit the school together before the first day. Just do a walk-around to help familiarize.
- For the little ones, try going to the school playground for a few minutes or a few times to show them that school is also fun!
- Don't miss the Meet the Teacher event. Your child will get a good look at where they may sit, see other friends, and see their hardworking and nurturing teacher.
- If your child still has a little anxiety about starting school, remind them of simple calming strategies like deep breathing and positive self-talk.

The most impactful thing you can do is be the example of excitement. Your child is looking to you for assurance and safety. Celebrate the new school year with them. Help to build their confidence and fearlessness. You matter most and they will take their cues from you.

Hopefully, these few things shared will help in some way. Lake forest has a great number of great kids of all ages and it is our hope for all of you to have a seamless entry into the new school year.

A few reminders:

- Slow down for buses and watch for children crossing the road
- Watch your speed and remember we have new young drivers sharing our roads
- If your child walks to and from a bus stop or from the school itself, remind them to use our sidewalks where possible.

Check out our website for any Fall activities and events
Have a wonderful 2022-2023 school year!!!

Collections of delinquent accounts from 2018 through July 2022

2018- $40,251.27

2019- $68,179.44

2020- $75,497.79

2021- $270,136.37

2022- $165,441.30

Total collected = $619,506.17 mid 2018 to July 20, 22

All Legal Costs 2018 through July 20, 2022 : $553,471.00

Income from collections $619,506.17 minus all legal costs of $553,471.00 leaves a net of $61,506.17

Also bear in mind that there has been a plethora of collected delinquent accounts that have now been moved to 'A' or active status. Many have set up auto-pay, which will likely keep more of those accounts current.

Golf Pro's Corner

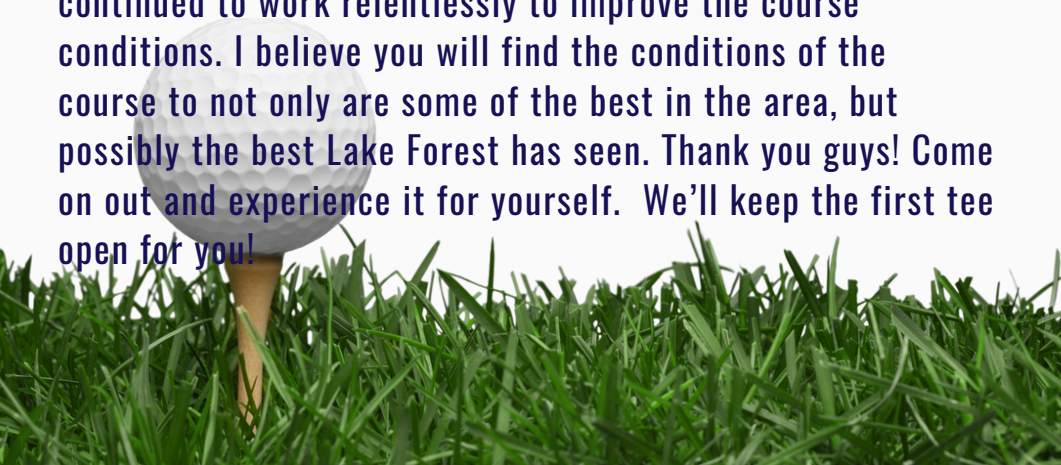

BY BRIAN BARKER, PGA

August is here and the July heat came along too! Whatever outside activity your doing this summer make sure you stay hydrated. We are very aware of this at the golf course but no matter what activity your doing outside keep cold liquids handy.

Having trouble slicing the ball, as a higher percentage of amateurs do? Try tinkering with your grip. Placing both hands in front of you with your thumbnails pointing to the sky, see the "V" that is made between your thumb and index finger. When taking your grip note where the "V's" point. Is it at your chin, which would be the most natural feeling positioning? Try rotating both hands clockwise until those "V's" are pointing at your right collarbone (left for lefties), and take your grip. What happened to your ball flight? Now, rotate them more until they point at your right shoulder (left shoulder for lefties). What happened to your ball flight now? Becoming familiar with and being consistent with your grip makes all the difference when it comes to ball flight!

The Southern Senior's Golf Association will be joining us once again on Thursday, August 25th with an 8:30am shotgun start. The course will reopen for play at 1:00pm.

Jake, and the entire crew on the maintenance staff have continued to work relentlessly to improve the course conditions. I believe you will find the conditions of the course to not only are some of the best in the area, but possibly the best Lake Forest has seen. Thank you guys! Come on out and experience it for yourself. We'll keep the first tee open for you!

The Back Deck Bar and Grille

BY CALVIN CLAY

Hello there from the Back Deck Bar and Grille. July is another great month with one week left to go and we are up double digits and should break another sales record!! We are continuing to hire new staff so we can open the entire restaurant to serve our customers better on those busy nights. We are also looking for energetic kitchen people as the sales have increased to require more people during peak hours.

We had several events this month and lots on the books for next month. The Back Deck continues to be a favorite place on the Eastern Shore to hold events. Kim continues to do a great job as our event coordinator.

We are looking to add entertainment a second night every other week starting in August. The entertainment will rotate from band to karaoke, most likely on Wednesday nights. We are looking to do couple of weekly specials from Chef Gouda in the upcoming weeks, stay tuned. Brian has added couple of new local crafts to the menu and will be rotating on a quarterly basis, depending on sales. Thank you to all our loyal customers and we welcome all our new customers.

Women's Club

BY EVE GRAY

Our women's club is a social club that gathers to celebrate our shared interests and causes from needs, arts, healthy lifestyles, or natural resources within our locality. We are not just ladies who lunch.

We take a hands-on approach with tangible projects and lend our assistance to local causes. We enlarge our world and make it just a bit better with every meeting, every interaction.

We acknowledge that residents' work schedules or child care issues may dictate the depth of involvement. With this in mind, we would love to hear from you how we can address this. What programs are you interested in? Some thoughts are sponsoring bake sales, car washes, mobile mammogram and blood drives, combined meetings with other LF clubs, sponsoring a child's morning reading program, organizing a welcome committee to help new residents understand how to maneuver the Lake Forest and provide some history to help foster neighborhood pride.

The new 2022-2023 officers: Eve Gray, Chairman; Karen Berthelson, Vice-Chairmant; Chris Houston-Lewis, Secretary and Mary Loury, Treasurer will be meeting this month to discuss the agendas and programs for the upcoming year. If you have an idea you would like us to consider, or a charity that is close to you, please contact us on our Lake Forest Facebook page:

Join us for the chance to network and create friendships.
